The work of laying sidewalks along the Bishop street side of Bishop Park is progressing rapidly. The work is being laid in alternate squares in order to give space for the workmen to move about and in the end of the week will probably be in place. The work of good will and will improve the appearance of Bishop street decidedly.

The Personal Tax (Poll, Road and School) should be paid before April 1, 1910, otherwise ten per cent will be added.

PERSONALS.

Arrival—Walter Dillingham is expected to arrive tomorrow on the Albatross from his home in Honolulu, and will be at the St. Francis a day or two before going to Canada for the polo. Dillingham is a polo enthusiast and rarely misses a tournament, even though his attendance necessitates the long journey from Hawaii.

Among the returning kamaeas on the Kona was George Isenberg, who comes home after an extended vacation spent in Germany. Mr. Isenberg visited the chief points of interest in Europe and was in Munich during the carnival season, that time of the year when the Bavarian capital forgets all about affairs of business and state and devotes itself entirely to merry-making.

S. E. Bulletin—To the beautiful Princess David Kawananakoa must be given the palm for having given new inspiration to our smart set, that of inviting men as well as ladies to an afternoon at bridge. The entertainment proved so enjoyable that many no doubt will be glad to do likewise. Theoretically it sounds very well to talk of the pleasures of an Adamless Eden, but it must be admitted, even with the possibility of adding to their content, that men do contribute something to the enjoyment of an entertainment.

INTERNAL REVENUE OFFICE TRANSFERRED

Inspector Thomas, internal revenue agent, arrived in the Kona this week and is engaged in going over the accounts of the local revenue office preparatory to transferring the office from collector Walter F. Drake to collector Walter F. Drake. The transfer is to be made on account of the fact that, because of his usual responsibilities through having to handle the collection of the corporation income tax, Mr. Drake's hands have been materially increased.

Mr. Thomas, who comes from San Francisco, has visited Hawaii several times before and has many friends here.

ACHI WOULD LIKE TO TEST THE NEW LAW

The Hon. W. C. Achi would like mightily to test the new law limits ordinance in the courts, but until now he has been unable to find any client willing to put up the case. In order to get the matter before the courts a test case would have to be made and apparently all those persons who desire to erect buildings in the now restricted district get busy looking out their permits and get down to work before the county dads get in their deadly work show.

This store is one ambitious attorney who desires to smash the ordinance, the passage of which his friends could not prevent, but who can not find a client. The only course open to him apparently is to rent a piece of land and erect a modern, corrugated iron "poor man's house" himself. So far he has not applied for a permit as far as the records show.

NIIPPON BAZAR IS A SCENE OF BEAUTY

The Nippon Bazar opened its doors to the public for the first time Monday and all day yesterday a stream of visitors passed in and out of the store.
The establishment is one of the most attractive in the city and it offers the visitors a chance to see Japanese art at least.

One of the unique features of the store is the tea house in the back part of the store. This tea house is as comfortable as it would be were it in the middle of a Japanese garden and not in the back part of a store. Here you will find the parlors of the bazar. The arrangement is the intention to place plants around the little tea house to carry out the illusion of an open garden.

The hanging lamps which illuminate the tea house are of particularly interesting design, and will not fail to draw the attention of the visitor. The usage of the transparent panels is unusually delicate and the general effect is all that could be imagined.
The whole atmosphere of the bazar is consistent that the visitor can imagine himself right in the very heart of beautiful Nippon.

Automobiles, $4 per hour. We take you home in the back limit for 50 cents.
